Title 5 Section 51022(b)

Accreditation Standard II.A.6.a

The Chancellor of the Coast Community College District is charged with the responsibility to ensure program and course articulation with two-year colleges, four-year colleges, high schools and other educational organizations, as appropriate. The Board of Trustees has the responsibility to review and approve programs subject to the provisions of applicable laws and regulations.

Each college in the District shall have a defined articulation process for general education, transfer education, and career technical education. These formal articulation agreements may vary according to the type of agreement or range of participants:

Types of Articulation Agreement

Course to Course

Major to Major

Program to Program

General Education (Breadth) to General Education (Breadth)

Major Prerequisite to Major Prerequisite

Lower Division Courses to Upper Division Courses

Participants in Articulation Agreements

Community College and High School

Community College and Regional Occupational Programs (ROP's)

Community College and Community College*

Community College and CSU System

Community College and CSU Individual Campus Sites

Community College and UC System

Community College and UC Individual Campus Sites

Community College and Independent/Private Domestic and Foreign Colleges and Universities

*Community college to community college articulation agreements are widely used because of student mobility between the community colleges in Orange County, Los Angeles County, and adjacent areas.
